FREMONT - Fremont Ross High School and Bellevue High School announced results of the 2017 National Merit Scholarship Program.

BHS announced that senior Corvin Mull earned National Merit Semifinalist status by scoring in the top 1 percent of 1.6 million students who took the PSAT during their junior year. In February 2017, semifinalists will be notified if they are eligible for scholarships.

Ross High School announced that Edward Dorobek was named a Commended Student in the 2017 National Merit Scholarship Program.

BHS also reported senior Megan Coan was named a Commended Student. Commended students placed among the top 5 percent of more than 1.6 million students in the 2017 competition.
