FREMONT - On Sunday, students, families and friends gathered to watch the Fremont Ross High School graduating seniors begin a new chapter of their lives.

This year, there were 253 seniors who graduated.

Before the students walked to receive their diplomas, they listened to speeches from principal Brian Zeller, superintendent Jon Detwiler, senior class president Gabriella Zuñiga, and several top academic students.

"Graduation marks the end of one era, but the beginning of another," said top academic student Rachel Hofacker.

Others urged the graduates to enjoy whatever they find themselves pursuing.

"Be happy, no matter where you go or what life brings you," said Savannah Krueger, another top academic student.

Other top academic students who spoke included Samuel Long, Sarah Schott, and Miranda Shetzer.

The graduation ceremony took place at Ross' home football field, Don Paul Stadium, at 1072 Miller St.
