

Community Roundup: Flower show and scholarship awards

Staff Reports Published 11:01 a.m. ET June 21, 2018

(Photo: Submitted)

CONNECTTWEETLINKEDINCOMMENTEMAILMORE

Whispering Meadows flower show winners named

FREMONT - The Sandusky County Whispering Meadows Garden Club again hosted a People's Choice Flower Show at Birchard Public Library in Fremont on June 15 and 16. The group is a member of the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs.

The flower designs were based on selected children's storybooks which are then donated to the library by the club.

Winners were: First place was a tie between Mary Gochenour for "If You Love a Horse Tale" and Cathy Coolidge for "Curious George Parade Day." Second place went to Vee Reifsnnyder for "ABC by Dr. Seuss" and third place went to Susan Eberhard for "10 Little Sock Monkeys."

The location for the flower show was in the children's department on the second floor of the library. The public was invited to view the arrangements and vote for their favorite. Photographs of the winners are posted at the Fremont Birchard Library website.

2 Ross grads earn AAA Safety Patrol scholarships

FREMONT - Two recent Fremont Ross High School graduates, Kassandra Kirsch and Owen Smith, are winners of the 30th annual AAA School Safety Patrol $1,000 Scholarship. Each year, AAA Ohio Auto Club awards this scholarship to 10 former AAA School Safety Patrol members to assist them as they further their education after high school.

Kirsch plans to attend Cedarville University, where she will study English. Smith plans to attend Bowling Green State University, where he will study business management.

ProMedica Memorial auxiliary holds awards dinner

FREMONT – ProMedica Memorial Hospital’s auxiliary awarded $12,000 to 12 local students pursuing a career in healthcare during the annual scholarship awards dinner on June 19.

The Al Nichols Family Scholarships given to nursing students were awarded to Dana Beier, Allyson Bloomer, Brooklyn Caudill, Katherine Kuss and Natalie Zyski.

The Mary Dalton Scholarships given by ProMedica Memorial Hospital medical staff to outstanding nursing students were awarded to Emily Muffler, Michael Kuss and Alexandria Rellinger.

The Leadership Award Scholarship from ProMedica Memorial Hospital’s physical medicine department to recognize outstanding leadership qualities was awarded to Allison Ackerman. The Health Education Scholarship from the auxiliary to students majoring in any healthcare field was awarded to Olivia Henr, Speech Pathology; Megan Michael, Physical Therapy, and Alexandra Seam, Psychology.

Port Clinton DECA seeks summer sponsorships

PORT CLINTON - The 2018-19 Port Clinton High School DECA Chapter is seeking sponsorships from area businesses that help support the many activities they have planned for the 2018-19 school year.

This year’s sponsors have four levels of participation: Chief, Redskin, Indian and Brave. All sponsorships are tax deductible. DECA members are planning to attend the Central Region Conference in Detroit November 16 to 18 and sponsorships help defray the costs of transportation, registration and lodging.

Sponsorship forms are available at www.pccsd.net under the News listing, or contact Bill Hollister, Port Clinton High School DECA Adviser at 419-734-2147 ext. 4025.

Sunrise Coop awards $50,000 in scholarships

FREMONT - Sunrise Cooperative, Inc. announced the recipients of their annual Sunrise Cooperative college scholarships. This year Sunrise offered 40 $1,000 scholarships for common stockholder's children and grandchildren and 10 $1,000 scholarships for employee's children and grandchildren. A total of 282 students entered to compete for the 40 common stockholder scholarships, while 20 competed for the 10 employee scholarships.

Among the Stockholder Scholarship recipients was Taylor Beard of Oak Harbor.