

Ross seniors collect for victims of Harvey

The News-Messenger Published 9:45 a.m. ET Sept. 9, 2017

(Photo: Molly Corfman/The News-Messenger)
CONNECTTWEETLINKEDINCOMMENTEMAILMORE

FREMONT - The Teen Leadership Corps at Fremont Ross High School, in conjunction with corporate sponsor Crown Battery, collected products to aid the victims of Hurricane Harvey.

The students collected water (cases or gallons), personal hygiene products, and cleaning products before Friday night's football game at Ross, and scheduled additional hours for accepting donations on Saturday and Sunday.

Senior Charlotte Whitney collects items for victims on Hurricane Harvey before the football game. (Photo: Molly Corfman/The News-Messenger)