

Taking the Sting Out of Behavior Training

Helps understand the "why" of behaviors.
Offers various techniques to assist in teaching skill building appropriate behaviors.

Fremont Ross High School Library
February 16, 2012
6:00 pm - 8:00 pm

This training will be presented by Sandy Brickner of the Ohio Coalition for the Education of Children with Disabilities (OCECD) and sponsored by the Sandusky County Parent Mentor Program. A light snack will be provided. All parents and professionals are invited. This training is FREE but you MUST register. Call 419-332-3220 to register or if you need further information.