

May 21, 2009

CLUB NEWS

EXCHANGE CLUB

Marv Mulholland was honored at the Golden Deeds Banquet. This annual award recognizes individuals who make a positive difference in the community.

The Youth of the Year Program recognized high school seniors Alayna Dorobek and Michael Yuhas, of Ross High School, Janelle Ochs and Zach Gabel, of St. Joseph Central Catholic High School and Jenifer Beaver and Josh Flanagan, of Vanguard Career Center. Each student received a check for $100. Michael Yuhas was selected the Youth of the Year and he received an award of $500 and an engraved plaque.

The Young Citizenship Award was presented to freshmen Samantha Miller and Alan Mehlow, of Ross High School, and Kayla Yeckley and Aaron Staib, of St. Joseph Central Catholic High School.

Brian Hoelzle, a senior at Ross High School, was presented the ACE Award.

Members of the Fremont Exchange Club volunteered at the Fremont Middle School Track Invitational, which is sponsored by the Exchange Club.

Teddy bears were given to the Sandusky County Sheriff's office for distribution to youngsters in crisis situations.

Recent programs include Dr. Jerome McTague, who spoke about the Physician's Choice Hospital; John Yanes, CEO Memorial Healthcare Systems; Paul Reed and the Fremont Ross Jazz Band; Bob Talcott of Goodwill Industries; Dennis Wolfe of NAMI; Blanche Lange of Green Springs Pork; Tom Culbertson of the Hayes Presidential Center regarding the Curriculum Connection Program; and Becky Herner, Executive Director of CASA.

Members will have a refreshment stand again this year as the summer concert series begins at Birchard Park. These concerts are free to the public and are held on Sunday nights.

The GIVEAKIDAFLAGTOWAVE program continues at the Memorial Day Parade as members hand out American flags to children at the parade.

The Fremont Exchange Club celebrates its 70th birthday at the May 29 meeting.
