

November 4, 2008

First-graders honored by school board

By LESLIE BIXLER
Staff writer

FREMONT -- Several first-graders were recognized at Monday night's Fremont School Board meeting for being students of the month for November.

The students each received a $50 savings bond and an engraved trophy.

The students of the month are: Kyrsten White at Atkinson Elementary, Connor Ratliff at Croghan Elementary, Lillian Clapp at Hayes Elementary, Brent Bliss at Lutz Elementary, Reagan Reau at Otis Elementary, Jaden Costilla at Stamm Elementary and Christopher Dyson at Washington Elementary.

In other news, the board approved the resignation of teacher Karen Semer for retirement beginning Jan. 1. The board also approved substitute teachers and a cook, along with approving supplemental contracts for four employees and designating them as advisors for student council, the newspaper, drama club and pep club.

The Washington Elementary PTO donated $628.50 in cash to students for the purchase of one book each at the book fair. The Fremont Music Boosters also donated music notation computer program valued at $208.95 to the Ross and Fremont Middle School band programs.
