

December 1, 2008

Fremont holiday parade

Weather complied with annual winter tradition

The 18th Annual Festival of Lights parade kicked off from Birchard Park Saturday. Hundreds of people lined the streets to see various floats and parade participants.

There were free horse and carriage rides, carolers, and plenty of shopping at downtown stores.

Parade highlights included the Ross and St. Joseph marching bands, kids, floats and, of course, Santa and Mrs. Claus also made a special appearance.

---

