Photos by two Ross students picked for FOCUS exhibition

Jurors selected Maria Rodriguez and TJ Wright, Fremont Ross High School students, to have their photographs shown in the FOCUS 2009 Art Exhibition. There were 282 pieces chosen from 1,174 artworks submitted by Northwest Ohio high school students from 27 schools.

This unique and exciting exhibit will open at the Dorothy Uber Bryan Gallery Bowling Green State University on Sept. 5 through Oct. 4. The public is invited to the closing reception and awards ceremony from noon to 1 p.m. Oct. 4.
