Ross students earn AP honors

News-Messenger reports

FREMONT -- Two students at Ross High School have earned the designation of AP Scholar by the College Board in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level Advanced Placement Exams.

2008 graduates Brandon Hord and Matthew Misciasci qualified for the AP Scholar Award by completing three or more AP exams with grades of 3 or higher.

The College Board's Advanced Placement Program provides motivated and academically prepared students with the opportunity to take rigorous college-level courses while still in high school and to earn college credit, advanced placement, or both for successful performance on the AP Exams.

Students took AP Exams in May after completing challenging college-level courses at their high schools. Only 18 percent of the 1.6 million high school students worldwide who took AP Exams performed at a sufficiently high level to also earn an AP Scholar Award.
