

April 3, 2009

Students showcase artwork

Submitted story

Fremont Middle School art students artwork from the entire year was displayed March 19 for the annual art show

Mason Sloma earned the best of show award with his Jimi Hendrix graphite drawing.

Other winners were Allison Harvey with best 2D artwork, Analyssia Brubaker with best 3D artwork and Amanda Slick with most creative artwork. First and second semester student work has been submitted for the 2009-2010 District Calendar Contest as well as the 2009 Fremont Memorial Hospital Art Contest.

Second semester seventh-grade students have been working on Earth Day-themed paintings for the upcoming Earth Day Celebration in Walsh Park.

Earth Day paintings will be on display along the bike trail Bridge from noon to 3 p.m. April 25.

Fremont Middle School art students displayed their work March 19. (Submitted photo)