Two band members to perform with Capital University

News-Messenger reports

FREMONT --Fremont Ross Band students Rini Gnepper and Seth Zeiter have been selected by taped audition to perform with the Capital University Honor Band.

Both students prepared audition tapes in the spring and were notified recently of their selection to this prestigious ensemble. Zeiter will perform on the euphonium and Gnepper plays the bassoon. The Capital University Honor Band, under the direction of renowned composer and conductor, Mark Camphouse, will perform on the Capital campus, on Saturday.

Additionally, Rini has been notified of her selection, by audition, to the 2009 Ohio Music Education Association All-State Band. This is the top honor ensemble in the entire state of Ohio and it will be Rini's second with this group.

The All-State Band will perform on Jan. 16 at the OMEA Professional Conference in Columbus.

The All-State Band will be under the direction of James Barnes, composer and director.

Seth is the son of Ed and Becky Zeiter. Rini is the daughter of Marisa and Kevin Gnepper.
