Yuhas honored as Youth of the Year

Submitted story

The Fremont Exchange Club honored Michael Yuhas, a senior at Ross High School, as Youth of the Year. He is the son of John and Kimberly Yuhas.

At the April 24 meeting, Yuhas read his essay, "America's Youth -- Changing the Beat of America," and was presented with an engraved plaque and a check for $500 for his future endeavors.

He is the recipient of Academic Achievement Awards, four-year letter winner in cross country and swimming, USAA National Mathematics Award, National Honor Roll, United States Achievement Academy and is a Voice of Democracy Speech Contest winner.

He is a member of National Honor Society vice president, Student Council vice president, captain of the cross country and swim teams. In his senior year, he was a podium finisher at the Northwest District event and was also second team GBC in the 500-freestyle.

His hobbies and interests include triathlons and gardening.

Yuhas plans to attend Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology to major in engineering, with a minor in physics.
