

Brown, Reineck earn Eagle Scout

Submitted story • March 3, 2010

Wesley James Brown and Sean Gregory Reineck have achieved the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest honor in Boy Scouts.

Brown's Court of Honor was at Bishop Hoffman Hall at St. Ann's in Fremont. He is a member of Erie Shores Troop 339 under scoutmaster Denny Setzler.

Brown is the son of Bill and Nancy Brown, of Fremont, and is a member of Hayes Memorial United Methodist Church. He has earned several God and Country awards as a Boy Scout and was awarded several scholarships to attend college through the church.

Brown has been involved with scouting since he was a first-grader at Lutz Elementary. He has earned 30 merit badges and was inducted into the Order of the Arrow.

He graduated in 2009 from Old Fort High School.

Wesley's Eagle project was to totally renovate the playground at Hayes Elementary School for a total of 318 hours.

Brown is a freshman at Ohio Northern University majoring in mechanical engineering.

Reineck, son of Greg and Linda Reineck, recently completed the highest honor in Boy Scouts, the Eagle Scout. His Eagle Court of Honor was Feb. 21 at Immaculate Conception Church.

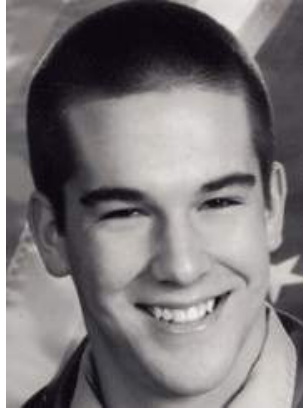

Reineck is a member of Troop 406 of Mount Carmel. He is a junior at Bellevue High School and attends EHOVE, where he is studying computer graphic arts. He will graduate in 2011 and plans to attend college.

He has also earned the Arrow of Light.

While a scout, Reineck has been to Philmont Summer Camp at Camp Frontier, Camp Alaska and other camporees.

He has held numerous leadership positions in Scouts and has completed 26 merit badges.

For his Eagle project, Reineck built a kiosk for Firelands Rails to Trails.

REINECK

BROWN