

September 22, 2009

Fremont City Schools to have college meeting

FREMONT -- Fremont City Schools is having a college planning meeting with nationally known author and college planning expert Mychal Wynn from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Sept. 29 in the auditorium at Fremont Middle School. Those attending should use the front entrance.

Wynn also will be sharing college preparatory information with students in grades seventh through 12th during the school day.

Wynn will be working with faculty and staff during the professional developmental day Sept. 30.
