Fremont grad earns Eagle Scout Award

Submitted story

FREMONT -- Andrew J. House, 18, of Fremont, has earned the Boy Scout Eagle Scout Award, Scouting's highest honor.

House was recognized at an Eagle Scout Court of Honor at Grace Lutheran Church in Fremont.

House, a member of Erie Shores Troop 307, is the son of David and Ruthann House. The troop is sponsored by Grace Lutheran Church. House has been involved with Scouting since he became a Tiger Scout in first grade. He has earned 25 merit badges.

House's project consisted of constructing an outdoor basketball court at the WSOS Stricker Family Development Center in Fremont. The court is used by toddlers and preschoolers at the center.

The project involved planning, designing, obtaining supplies and materials, constructing the court surface, edging, cementing the hoop and installing the backboard. The project involved the help of fellow Scouts, leaders, family and community members.

House appreciated the generous donations to the project by Beck Suppliers, Herman-Kinn Funeral Homes, Roppe Rubber and WSOS.

House is a 2009 graduate of Fremont Ross High School and is a freshman at The Ohio State University majoring in mechanical engineering.
