

November 18, 2009

Jazz combo performs at conference

Submitted story

FREMONT -- The Fremont Ross High School Jazz Combo was one of five groups selected to perform at the Ohio School Boards Association Capital Conference and Trade Show on Nov. 10 in Columbus.

The jazz band, under John Calhoun's direction, performed three pieces: "Work Song" by Nat Adderly, "Fowl Play" by Kris Berg and "Watermelon Man" by Herbie Hancock. The combo was chosen to represent Northwest Ohio after submitting an audition tape.

The combo also visited The Ohio State University campus and music department. They performed and recorded the pieces at the university.

The students met with Jon Woods, director of the Ohio State University Marching Band, and John Waters, assistant director of the Ohio State University, who provided feedback to the students on their performance.

The Fremont Ross High School Jazz Combo performed at the Ohio School Boards Association Capital Conference.
(Submitted photo)