

December 29, 2009

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

The Learning and Liberty Foundation of the Fremont City Schools and Old Fort Bank Second Grade Students of the Month for December:

ATKINSON

Chasity Gilbert, daughter of Sherry Keller, is a student in Stacy Kimball's class. Chasity likes to play basketball, play outside with her siblings, play her Nintendo DS and spend time with her family. According to her nomination form, "Chasity is always on task in class where she follows directions while working hard. Chasity always gives her best effort and is a great role model for her classmates. Her teacher stated that Chasity is an outgoing and caring individual who excels academically and serves as an inspiration for others."

CROGHAN

Matthew Scherer, son of John and Kerri Scherer, is in Tonya Cook's class. Matthew enjoys spending his free time playing with his brother. Another favorite hobby for Matthew is collecting mini-cars. He is very excited about his collection. Matthew's teacher nominated Matthew because "he is such a hard worker who loves to help others in the classroom and is definitely a top quality student who is a pleasure to have in class."

HAYES

Kameron Armentrout, son of Nicole and Brian Armentrout, is in Mrs. Lozano's class. Kameron enjoys playing tag in his free time. He also spends a lot of time playing with his brother and is especially fond of football and hockey. Kameron was nominated because "he follows the school rules each day in class. He also works cooperatively with others while showing courtesy and respect." Kameron personally stated, "I think about being respectful all the time."

LUTZ

Ethan Taylor, son of Rhonda and Bill Taylor, is in Jane Stotz's class. Ethan is very busy in his spare time. He is a member of the Sand Otter swim team. Ethan enjoys playing baseball, sailing, boating and being a Kiwanis helper. Stotz nominated Ethan because he is a creative and innovative young man. In the classroom, Ethan is very conscientious and always willing to help others. According to his nomination form, "Ethan is a joy to teach. He is such a responsible and caring young man. Ethan surely brings smiles to his classroom each day."

OTIS

Vivyanna Esquivel, daughter of Jessica Burns and Wesley Esquivel II, is in Mrs. William's class. Vivyanna enjoys ballet, reading and spending time with her family. She also spends her time shopping and singing. According to her nomination form, "Vivyanna comes to school every day well prepared and eager to learn. Her enthusiasm shines in her face and her work. She will take on any challenge with self confidence, determination and hard work. Mrs. Williams stated, "Vivyanna's attitude is delightful!"

STAMM

Modesta Anguiano, daughter of Sonia and Modesto Anguiano, is in Mindy Hensel's class. Modesta enjoys playing with her friends. She especially has fun playing freeze tag and spending time on the monkey bars. Modesta also likes to swim. She is developing her love of drawing and coloring. According to her nomination form, "Modesta is a sweet girl who is always smiling. She works very hard and has a positive attitude each day at school. Modesta displays characteristics of a top quality citizen. She is a pleasure to be around."

WASHINGTON

Kortini Joseph, daughter of Jennifer and Michael Joseph, is in Patricia Shay's class. Kortini enjoys reading, playing basketball and soccer. She spends time sewing and is an active member of Girl Scouts and her church. Kortini was nominated because she holds herself to high academic achievement levels and is a classroom leader. She is always ready to help others and to provide her peers with positive encouragement. Kortini is very excited about learning to write in cursive and enjoys meeting new friends every day at school.
