

Local players receive honors

News-Messenger reports • March 11, 2010

Another day, another honor for Clyde's Ben Danhoff.

The senior, who was named to the all-Sandusky Bay Conference team and the District 6 coaches' team, can add another accolade: Second-team all Northwest District Division II.

Danhoff led the Sandusky Bay Conference with more than 18 points a game.

Bellevue's Cody Ruhlman was also given second team honors, and teammate Curtis Watson was given honorable mention.

Port Clinton's Ryan Hicks shared player of the year honors with Zach Leahy of Rossford, and Redskins coach Troy Diels shared the coach of the year award with Defiance's Kirk Lehman.

Fremont Ross's Shunnar Gamble was given honorable mention for the Division I boys teams.

Gibsonburg's Lee Renner received third-team recognition in Division III. Renner averaged 16.4 points and 6.1 rebounds per game, and was a senior leader for a young Golden Bears team.

Gage Beaber, a sophomore for the Bears, was given honorable mention, as was Devin Jones of Margaretta.

Bettsville senior Andrew Hartsel, who averaged 16.4 points per game, received third-team recognition in Division IV. Teammate Tyler Mulligan was given honorable mention, as were Midland Athletic League rivals Roman Ream of Old Fort and Brant Reardon of St. Joseph Central Catholic.

Bellevue sophomore Leslie Raifsnider was given first-team recognition in Division II. She averaged more than 18 points per game for the Lady Red. Teammate Erika Jordan was given honorable mention.

Clyde's Kaylea Griffin made the second team. Sara Lipstraw of Oak Harbor was tabbed honorable mention.

Gibsonburg's Samantha Stainbrook and Sarah Weyer were given honorable mention in Division III. Old Fort's Hailey Koebel received honorable mention in Division IV.
