Ross quarterback earns top honor

The performance of Ross quarterback Cody Foos in last week's 29-25 loss at Whitmer earned him the News-Messenger's football player of the week award.

Foos was 10-of-21 passing for 168 yards, a touchdown and an interception. He also ran for another score for the Little Giants.

Foos got 44.4 percent of the 178 votes cast. St. Joseph Central Catholic's Zak Bowman got 33.1 percent of the vote, and Gibsonburg's Avery Potridge and Lakota's Roger Guerra each got 11.2 percent of the vote.

Come back to TheNews-Messenger.com next week to vote for another football player of the week.
