Stamm students awarded Silver Stars

Submitted story

FREMONT -- Listed are the Silver Star winners at Stamm Elementary School. Students are rewarded with silver by custodians, teachers, aides, etc., for making good choices, participating in class and for being good citizens. Students cash them in for candy, treats and a kind word from the principals.

- Javonte Garza: "I got a Stamm Silver for making good corrections on a test. I got a lemon-flavored Tootsie Roll, and I like getting the silver because it keeps me out of trouble and makes me help people."
- Keevyn Skelton: "I cleaned up my classroom after school yesterday. I like getting Stamm Silver, because then I get to see the principal for something good."
- Kylie Blanchard: "I like the candy, and I like helping out in the cafeteria."
- Casey Willey: "I received my Stamm Silver for answering a question right in music. I like getting Stamm Silver because it makes me feel good."
- Elita Pesina: "I received my Stamm Silver for picking up some trash, and I like getting Stamm Silver because I am earning something."
- Manny Ramirez: "I got the Stamm Silver for answering four questions right in social studies. I like to get Stamm Silver to show I'm a good student and to get candy."
- Remey Bulger: "This is my third Stamm Silver this school year. I answered four questions right, and I really like to get candy and stuff."
- Da'Vontae Everett: "I was good for the whole day!"

Kindergartners Briana Sorg, Jasmine Haubert, Ecenya Garza and Avriana Shorty received silver for being helpful in their classroom.
