

November 19, 2009

Students show skills at state show

Submitted story

Students from the Fremont Gifted Program were selected to participate during the 11th annual Student Achievement Fair at the 2009 Ohio Schools Boards Association Capital Conference and Trade Show in Columbus.

OSBA showcased 100 innovative programs from all over Ohio. Fremont Gifted Program shared its Fremont's Lifetime Investment in Gifted and Highly Talented Students program using higher thinking skills to complete real-world problem-solving projects during FLIGHT Saturday enrichment sessions.

Students and staff from districts across the state exhibited their innovative programs at the fair. More than 10,000 school board members, administrators, teachers, vendors and guests attended the four-day OSBA Capital Conference and Trade Show.

Students from Fremont's Lifetime Investment in Gifted and Highly Talented Students program recently participated in the Student Achievement Fair in Columbus. Front row: fifth-grade students Paige Turner (Atkinson), Nick Arnold (Washington), Grant Gallagher (Stamm) and Alyssa Meyer (Lutz). Second row: Tim Cullen, Dr. Traci McCaudy, Christine Opelt and Dave Mowry (Submitted photo)