

BOE honors volunteers

DECEMBER 2, 2011

FREMONT -- Three community members who have contributed to the educational excellence in the district were honored at the Nov. 21 Fremont Board of Education meeting. Volunteerism and service are important considerations to earning this award.

The Fremont City Schools Communication Committee implemented a program to ensure community members felt valued and connected to their school system.

Pictured are Fremont Board of Education volunteer honorees Ron Wetzel, Martha Ballenger and her dog Wren and Bill Draeger. / Submitted photo