

Dylan Showman earns Eagle Scout designation

SEPTEMBER 28, 2011

FREMONT -- Dylan Showman has earned the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest in Scouting. Showman is a member of Boy Scout Troop 302, sponsored by Hayes Memorial United Methodist Church. Scoutmaster is Ed Logan.

Showman has earned 26 merit badges at this time. He has held the offices of senior patrol leader, assistant senior patrol leader, patrol leader and assistant patrol leader. He has held these offices at least once and some more than that.

Showman chose a community project to benefit Hayes Memorial UMC by redoing the church billboard by Ohio 53. With the help of scouts, friends and family, the sign was torn down and completely reconstructed. Landscaping was added. The project took 309 hours to complete. Donations were received from various businesses and individuals.

A Court of Honor will be in September at Hayes Memorial UMC for the presentation of the Eagle Scout Rank.

Showman has earned all the ranks in Cub Scouts as a member of Pack 302. He is a Tiger Cub graduate and has earned the Arrow of Light Rank, the highest rank in Cub Scouting.

Showman is a 2011 graduate of Fremont Ross High School. He was on the honor roll throughout his high school years and was given a gold medal in his senior year for a 4.0-plus grade-point average. He also played football for Ross.

He is the son of Michael and Amber Showman, of Lindsey, and Teresa Overmeyer, of Fremont. He is the grandson of Ron Sr. and Barb Showman, of Fremont, Betty and Edgar Sanchez, of Fremont, and Larry and Beverly Crone, of Gibsonburg.
