

Fremont starts school employee recognition program

DECEMBER 8, 2011

FREMONT -- Fremont City Schools Communication Committee implemented a recognition program designed to ensure all Fremont City Schools employees feel valued and connected to our system.

The program rewards and recognizes individual achievements in leadership, motivation and dedication.

Nomination forms are available on both the Internet at fremontschools.net and nomination boxes and forms are available in the office area at each building

Congratulations to the following employees, who were recognized for the first quarter of 2011-2012:

- » Michaelleen Rogers, child nutrition supervisor.
- » Shelley Fannin, social worker.
- » Jeff Stratka, elementary wellness teacher.
- » Janet Myles, Fremont Middle School librarian.
- » Pat Ohlman, substitute.
