

Community Roundup: Lions, Kiwanis clubs join to collect food for pantries

Staff reports

March 19, 2021

Lions Club recognizes students of month

FREMONT - The February and March Students of the Month were introduced at the Fremont Lions Club virtual meeting by President Nora Mollis.

Students for February included: Drew Frederick and Abigail Pena from St. Joseph Central Catholic and Dion Bradley and Jenna Ruiz from Fremont Ross High School. Kimora Rapp and Case Stevenson were introduced as the March students from Fremont Ross. Each student shared their extracurricular activities and their goals for the future.

Fremont Lions also hosted a virtual zone meeting in February with 23 Lions from various clubs in attendance. Fremont members were joined by members from Bellevue, Elmore, Lindsey, Marblehead, Oak Harbor and Port Clinton.

Club activities were shared. Speakers included the Lion Governor Kerry Parker, who shared information on the convention on March 20 in Strongsville. Due to COVID -19, various changes will take place for the safety of all in attendance.

Fremont Lions Club officers were elected at the groups' March meeting for the upcoming year beginning in July.

Officers will be: Colleen Carmack, president; Donna Thatcher, vice presiden; Michelle Russell, secretary; Susie McGilton, treasurer; Dave Peiffer, tail twister; Dave Souder, lion tamer; Jim Elder, chaplain; Dan Polter and Jeanne Sutton, one-year directors will join current directors Jim Elder and Chris Mollis.